September 23, 2005.

P.C.

By the present petition what is impugned is the order dated 6th April 2005. We do not propose to interfere with the said order, except to extend the time in making the deposit.

2. On behalf of the Petitioners, the Learned Counsel on instructions states that the Petitioners will deposit before the District Consumer Forum, Pune, a sum of Rs.50,000/- within one week from today and a further sum of Rs.1 lakh within four weeks from today. There would be a stay in so far as the proceedings under Section 27, initially for a period of one week. If the Petitioners deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/-, the stay will be continued for a period of four weeks from today. If a sum of Rs.1 lakh is then deposited as set out above, the interim order will continue till the appeal which is pending before the Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, is heard and disposed of.

3. Needless to say that we have not decided the petition on merits and all issues are left open for consideration before the Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission. With the above directions, the petition stands disposed of.
